

DIVIDE ME UP

Given a square piece of paper, divide the page into two areas so that the areas are equal, but the perimeters are different. Please note, each shape must be completely connected.

You may use the coloured paper to test out a design, then draw your solution below. Whilst you don't have to calculate the area and perimeter, you must justify why your solution is valid.

